

Sleep Health Data Privacy Policy

Collection and Use of Sleep Health Data

We collect Sleep Health Data from you through your use of the Sleep Number Sleep Wellness Technology (SleepIQ Technology) platform, including the hardware and software located in your Sleep Number® smart bed and the Sleep Number® app. We collect this information when you:

- Use a Sleep Number® smart bed with the Sleep Wellness Technology platform enabled
- Create a Sleep Number® sleeper profile in the Sleep Number app
- Use the Sleep Number app
- Enter information into the Sleep Number app
- Choose to connect the Sleep Number app with a Third-Party Service

Your use of the Sleep Number Sleep Wellness Technology platform enables us to provide you with SleepIQ services. SleepIQ services include data collection, data analysis, and inferences we may draw from your Sleep Health Data, aggregated data from the Sleep Wellness Technology platform, or sleep science insights to provide you with personalized content (“SleepIQ Services”).

You can choose to disable the transmission of Sleep Health Data to us by turning on “Privacy Mode” in the Sleep Number® app. This will stop the transmission of new Sleep Health Data while Privacy Mode is on. We will continue to maintain the Sleep Health Data that we have already collected from you, but in Privacy Mode the only information transmitted to us is your app and remote interactions, and that your pump is online and generally operational. With Privacy Mode on, the Sleep Number® app can still be used to control the Sleep Number® setting, the bed base, and other bed features; data needed to enable these features will be processed locally on your device and will not be transmitted to us. Some features, such as obtaining your SleepIQ® score, will not be available with Privacy Mode on. If you later turn off Privacy Mode, this will resume the transmission of Sleep Health Data.

The Sleep Health Data that we collect from you through your use of the Sleep Number Sleep Wellness Technology platform may be considered “sensitive data” or “consumer health data” under the privacy laws of some states. We only process this information after we have received your consent. We obtain your consent through the Sleep Number® app. You have the right to withdraw this consent at any time. You may withdraw your consent by contacting customer service at 1-800-554-0184, or through Account Settings in the Sleep Number® app, to delete your Sleep Number® sleeper profile. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

The Sleep Health Data we collect from you varies depending on which Sleep Number® smart bed you use and how you choose to use the Sleep Number® app, including your use of Privacy Mode. So that we can provide you SleepIQ Services, we maintain your Sleep Health Data until you notify us that you are no longer using the services and submit a verified request to delete this information.
